Corporate Housing America at 503.342.8685

History – We started at this small property...

Established in 1996

Corporate Housing America began kind of by chance, with this small studio apartment and was known as the “Country Garden Inn” which was an ideal setting for a B&B. We have since grown, changing our name as we grew into a highly sought after service in the surrounding communities including locations throughout Portland, Beaverton and Oregon City.

We pride ourselves on service. We also want you to be comfortable and “at home” during your stay. We feel very strongly that our service and dedication to the comfort of our guests is what sets us apart from our competitors. We believe that our concept is unique - we want your "home away from home" to be everything you need it to be. We encourage you to e-mail us at the end of your stay to help us consistently exceed expectations. Corporate Housing America was built onand relies upon repeat business and referrals from satisfied guests like you.

What is the process for booking an apartment...?

To simplify the reservation process, you can receive the paperwork via email, to be printed out, signed and either faxed or emailed back to Corporate Housing America. Or, you can access the documents via DocuSign, where you can complete and sign the documents online without having to print them out.

You can choose to pay by the week. Or, to get the best rate possible, you can prepay your entire stay.

You can choose to pay by the week. Or, to get the best rate possible, you can prepay your entire stay. CHA provides comfortable fully furnished apartments at Exceptional Weekly Rates throughout the Portland Metro area. Our properties range in size and amenities. CHA has a variety of studios, 1, 2, and 3 bedroom apartments that can accommodate most lifestyles & budgets.

Our apartments have full size kitchens with dishwashers and all the basics provided. Utilities, internet access and cable television are all included in our unbeatable rates.

CHA offers the best alternative to hotel or motel accommodations when you want space and somewhere that feels like home. Whether you need a place to stay for business travel, vacations or because you have been displaced due to a remodel, fire or water damage or any other reason, we have the place for you, a place to temporarily call “home”.
